WAUKEE, IOWA

The City of Waukee is recognized as the fastest-growing (large) city in Iowa and is located in Dallas County—the fourth fastest growing county in the U.S. Waukee offers a friendly, community-oriented vibe featuring quality schools, parks, trails, entertainment and enrichment opportunities. The City is also dedicated to economic development and business opportunities, including the expansion of both the mixed-use development Kettlestone and the highly traveled Hickman Road corridor.

POPULATION DETAILS

A Special Census completed in 2024 shows that Waukee is home to 31,823 people, a significant growth of more than 7,000 from the 2020 U.S. Census, which counted 23,940 residents. This makes Waukee the fast growing City in Iowa and one of the fastest growing communities in the U.S. As the City continues to invest in infrastructure and amenities, and the Waukee Community School District continues to attract people with its quality education and programs, growth in and around Waukee is expected to continue. City officials project that Waukee's population could reach 35,000 by the year 2030. The median resident age is 32.1, and Waukee's median household income is $94,617.
