Approximately eight acres in a highly sought-after, centrally located corridor, offering exceptional potential for commercial, multifamily, or business development. The property includes an existing brick rancher that can be utilized as-is or adapted to suit a variety of needs, providing both immediate functionality and future flexibility.

Strategically positioned with strong visibility from Interstate 64 in the Hurricane Creek area, this property is surrounded by major regional anchors including Walmart, City National Bank, Willow Tree, St. Mary's Medical Center, and River Ridge. With close proximity to established dealerships, national and local dining options, and convenient access to I-64, the location benefits from steady traffic flow, excellent accessibility, and continued area growth.

A rare opportunity to secure acreage in a prime location with the versatility to accommodate a wide range of uses.
