ABOUT CHANDLER, ARIZONA

Chandler, Arizona, has evolved from its agricultural roots into a vibrant, world-class “Community of Innovation.” Founded in 1912 by Dr. A.J. Chandler, the city was meticulously planned with a focus on forward-thinking infrastructure. Today, Chandler is a major economic powerhouse in the Phoenix-Mesa metropolitan area, home to global leaders in technology, aerospace, finance, and advanced manufacturing. Despite its rapid growth, the city maintains an exceptional quality of life with award-winning parks, a historic downtown, and a diverse, highly-educated population.

Chandler’s pro-business environment makes it a top destination for corporations. The city is anchored by the Price Corridor, a major employment hub that’s home to Intel, Wells Fargo, Northrop Grumman, and Microchip Technology. This concentration of high-tech industry fuels a dynamic ecosystem of innovation.

The area boasts a wealth of amenities, from the upscale shops and restaurants at Chandler Fashion Center to the vibrant, historic Downtown Chandler. With a highly educated workforce and unparalleled freeway access, Chandler offers an ideal setting for businesses to thrive.
