Heritage building with modern improvements

Originally built in 1911, The Old BC Electric Railway Building operated as a station along the most extensive interurban railway system in Canada through the late 1950s.

The Old BC Electric Railway Building as it stands today is a 102,472 sf heritage mixed use building owned by Anthem Properties and ideally situated at the convergence of three distinct and historic neighbourhoods: Chinatown, Gastown and the Central Business District.

ABOUT ANTHEM PROPERTIES

Founded in 1991, Anthem is a team of 500 people driven by creativity, passion and direct communication. Anthem has invested in, developed or managed – alone or in partnership – more than 320 residential, commercial and retail projects across western North America.

We own, co-own, manage or have previously owned over nine million square feet of retail, industrial and office space. We have developed more than 60 communities across 8,500 acres of land in Alberta, British Columbia and California.

Anthem is a real estate development, investment and management company that strives, solves and evolves to create better spaces and stronger communities. We are Growing Places.
