Martin County Chamber of Commerce expects huge economic impacts with new Brightline station

MARTIN COUNTY, Fla. — Mar 5, 2024

Brightline officially announced on Monday that the city of Stuart will be the latest train station location in Martin County.

County leaders say the economic impacts will be the most notable.

"This is going to be an added addition to our merchants and businesses downtown," said Joseph Catrambone, the CEO of Stuart/Martin County Chamber of Commerce.

An estimated 600,000 people are expected to be attracted to the area, according to the Stuart/Martin County Chamber of Commerce.

CEO Joseph Catrambone says he hopes to see some of that growth within the next year.....

Stuart, Florida

Stuart, Florida is located on Florida's East Coast, which borders the St. Lucie River and West of the Indian River. The climate is pleasant with mild winters and warm summers. The annual average temperature is 72 degrees. Annual rainfall averages 60 inches.

Stuart is famed for its exceptional sailfishing and all other types of sport fishing. You can enjoy ocean fishing, river and bay fishing, and fresh water fishing. The North and South forks of the St. Lucie River are tropical wonderlands for cruises. Stuart has quaint older neighborhoods in the downtown area, including a mixture of townhomes and condominiums. Stuart's successful revitalization program has given the Downtown area a pleasant ambiance, with shops and restaurants lining the streets.

The top major employers are Cleveland Clinic Hospital, Vought Aircraft, Municipal Government, and thousands of successful small businesses. The economy is driven by retail service, hospitality, construction, and government sectors located throughout the city.

At the present time, Stuart is a growing community, annexing new properties north and south of the city, currently 6.25 square miles. Revitalization continues in the Potsdam section of the downtown area as well as North of the Roosevelt Bridge. Completed in 1996, the Roosevelt Bridge is a prominent feature in the area, allowing for easy connectivity and accessibility to Stuart's Public Beaches.
