Data Center Adjacent – Industrial Asset

501 Denim Way is strategically located within the Jackson, MS MSA, offering strong access to regional transportation and logistics networks. The property also benefits from proximity to the AWS data center developments in both Ridgeland and Canton, positioning it within a rapidly expanding technology and infrastructure corridor. This location supports efficient distribution, staging, and supply chain operations while aligning with long-term growth driven by hyperscale data center investment in the region.

AWS-Powered Growth Engine: Madison County Mega Site's $30 Billion+ Cloud Infrastructure Boom

The Madison County Mega Site, home to Amazon Web Services' (AWS) planned multi-billion-dollar data center developments in Ridgeland and Madison, represents one of the most transformative economic catalysts in Mississippi's history, with a projected impact exceeding $30 billion.

Strategically positioned with robust infrastructure, reliable utilities, and excellent regional connectivity, the Mega Site has attracted AWS as a long-term anchor whose high-capital, mission-critical facilities typically drive sustained demand for surrounding commercial, industrial, and service-oriented real estate.

The AWS presence is expected to generate significant job creation (both direct and indirect), infrastructure upgrades, and sustained tax revenue growth, reinforcing Madison County's position as a regional technology and innovation hub.

For investors, proximity to this hyperscale data center cluster enhances the long-term value proposition of nearby real estate, as global cloud and technology tenants tend to attract complementary users, accelerate development timelines, and underpin strong occupancy fundamentals in adjacent commercial properties.

Total Economic Impact	$30+ billion
Primary User	Amazon Web Services (AWS)
Location Focus	Ridgeland & Canton, Madison County, MS
Project Type	Hyperscale cloud/data center developments
Key Real Estate Advantage	Long-term, tech-driven demand generator

Jackson, Mississippi MSA: The State's Premier Government, Healthcare, and Growth Corridor

The Jackson, Mississippi MSA—anchored by the state capital and encompassing Hinds, Madison, and Rankin counties—is the largest economic, governmental, and healthcare hub in Mississippi, with a regional population of roughly 600,000.

The metro benefits from its central location at the crossroads of I-55 and I-20, strong rail connectivity, and Jackson–Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport, supporting distribution, manufacturing, and professional services.

Major employment drivers include state government, higher education (Jackson State University, Belhaven, Millsaps), and a growing healthcare and medical research cluster led by the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Submarkets such as Madison and Rankin counties have experienced sustained residential and commercial growth, driven by favorable demographics, strong school systems, and rising household incomes.

Together, these dynamics underpin a diversified and stable regional economy that continues to attract institutional, industrial, and retail investment across the MSA.

MSA Population	~600,000 residents
Core Counties	Hinds, Madison, Rankin
Key Transportation Links	I-55, I-20, rail, Jackson–Medgar Wiley Evers Int'l Airport
Primary Economic Drivers	State government, healthcare, higher education
Growth Submarkets	Madison & Rankin counties (higher incomes, new housing & retail)

Madison County, Mississippi: High-Income, High-Growth Submarket within the Jackson MSA

Madison County, located just north of Jackson, is one of Mississippi’s most affluent and fastest-growing counties, characterized by strong demographics and sustained residential and commercial expansion.

The county has a population of roughly 110,000–115,000 residents, with continued positive net migration driven by high-performing school districts, new housing communities, and quality-of-life amenities.

Madison County consistently ranks among the top Mississippi counties for median household income—well above state and national averages—supported by a professional, managerial, and healthcare-oriented employment base.

Household growth has fueled robust demand for retail, services, and modern industrial space, while corporate investment—including large-scale technology and logistics users—has reinforced the county’s reputation as a premier, business-friendly submarket within the Jackson MSA.

Madison, MS Population	~110,000–115,000 residents
10-Year Population Growth	~17% increase (2013–2023)
Median Household Income	~$86,000 (vs. MS state average ~ $55,000)
Bachelor’s Degree or Higher	~46% of residents age 25+
Median Home Value	~$285,000

WORKING WITH A REAL ESTATE BROKER

THIS IS NOT A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT

GENERAL

Approved 01/2003 By
MS Real Estate Commission
P. O. Box 12685
Jackson, MS 39232

Before you begin working with any real estate agent, you should know whom the agent represents in the transaction. Mississippi real estate licensees are required to disclose which party they represent in a transaction and to allow a party the right to choose or refuse among the various agency relationships.

There are several types of relationships that are possible and you should understand these at the time a broker or salesperson provides specific assistance to you in a real estate transaction.

The purpose of the Agency Disclosure is to document an acknowledgement that the consumer has been informed of various agency relationships, which are available in a real estate transaction.

For the purpose of this disclosure, the term seller and/or buyer will also include those other acts specified in Section 73-35-3 (1), of the Miss. Code, "...list, sell, purchase, exchange, rent, lease, manage, or auction any real estate, or the improvements thereon including options."

SELLER'S AGENT

A seller can enter into a "listing agreement" with a real estate firm authorizing the firm and its agent(s) to represent the seller in finding a buyer for his property. A licensee who is engaged by and acts as the agent of the Seller only is known as a Seller's Agent. A Seller's agent has the following duties and obligations:

To the Seller:

*The fiduciary duties of loyalty, confidentiality, obedience, disclosure, full accounting and the duty to use skill, care and diligence.

To the Buyer and Seller:

*A duty of honesty and fair dealing.

*A duty to disclose all facts known to the Seller's agent materially affecting the value of the property, which are not known to, or readily observable by, the parties in a transaction.

BUYER'S AGENT

A buyer may contract with an agent or firm to represent him/her. A licensee who is engaged by and acts as the agent of the Buyer only is known as the Buyer's Agent.

If a Buyer wants an agent to represent him in purchasing a property, the buyer can enter into a Buyer's Agency Agreement with the agent. A Buyer's Agent has the following duties and obligations:

To the Buyer:

* The fiduciary duties of loyalty, confidentiality, obedience, disclosure, full accounting and the duty to use skill, care and diligence.

To the Seller and Buyer:

* A duty of honesty and fair dealing.

DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT

A real estate agent or firm may represent more than one party in the same transaction. A Disclosed Dual Agent is a licensee who, with the informed written consent of the Seller and Buyer, is engaged as an agent for both Seller and Buyer.

As a disclosed dual agent, the licensee shall not represent the interests of one party to the exclusion or detriment of the interests of the other party. A disclosed dual agent has all the fiduciary duties to the Seller and Buyer that a Seller's or Buyer's agent has except the duties of full disclosure and undivided loyalty.

A Disclosed Dual Agent may not disclose:

- (a) To the Buyer that the Seller will accept less than the asking or listed price, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Seller.
- (b) To the Seller that the Buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer to the Seller, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Buyer.
- (c) The motivation of any party for selling, buying, or leasing a property, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the respective party, or
- (d) That a Seller or Buyer will agree to financing terms other than those offered, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the respective party.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

"Customer" shall mean that person not represented in a real estate transaction. It may be the buyer, seller, landlord or tenant.

A Buyer may decide to work with a firm that is acting as agent for the Seller (a Seller's Agent or subagent). If a Buyer does not enter into a Buyer Agency Agreement with the firm that shows him properties, that firm and its agents may show the buyer properties as an agent or subagent working on the seller's behalf. Such a firm represents the Seller (not the Buyer) and must disclose that fact to the Buyer.

When it comes to the price and terms of an offer, the Seller's Agent will ask you to decide how much to offer for any property and upon what terms and conditions. They can explain your options to you, but the final decision is yours, as they cannot give you legal or financial advice. They will attempt to show you property in the price range and category you desire so that you will have information on which to base your decision.

The Seller's Agent will present to the Seller any written offer that you ask them to present. You should keep to yourself any information that you do not want the Seller to know (i.e. the price you are willing to pay, other terms you are willing to accept, and your motivation for buying). The Seller's agent is required to tell all such information to the Seller. You should not furnish the Seller's agent anything you do not want the Seller to know. If you desire, you may obtain the representation of an attorney or another real estate agent, or both.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT. THIS IS AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF DISCLOSURE

The below named Licensee has informed me that brokerage services are being provided me as a:

- Client (Seller's or Landlords Agent)
- Client (Buyer's or Tenants Agent)
- Client (Disclosed Dual Agent)
- Customer (Not as my Agent)

By signing below, I acknowledge that I received this informative document and explanation prior to the exchange of confidential information which might affect the bargaining position in a real estate transaction involving me.
