Property Overview

1562 King Ave, Columbus, OH 43212

Position your business at one of Grandview's most visible commercial locations. This approximately 2,000 SF retail space features an open floor plan with expansive storefront windows that flood the interior with natural light, creating an inviting atmosphere and exceptional visibility along King Avenue.

Currently operating as a fitness center, the space offers a highly adaptable layout suitable for a variety of retail, showroom, wellness, office, or service-oriented uses. In addition to the large open area, the suite includes two private rooms currently utilized as locker rooms that can easily be converted into offices, consultation rooms, storage areas, or other support space.

Located at a signalized intersection with approximately 200 feet of frontage along King Avenue, the property benefits from outstanding exposure to daily traffic and excellent signage opportunities. Ample adjacent parking provides convenient access for customers, clients, and employees.

The surrounding area is a vibrant mix of established residential neighborhoods, office users, and complementary retailers, creating a strong customer base and consistent activity throughout the day. The property's central location offers convenient access to Grandview Heights, Upper Arlington, the Short North Arts District, and The Ohio State University, making it an ideal destination for businesses seeking visibility and connectivity within one of Central Ohio's most desirable submarkets.

Property Highlights

- Great on site parking
