Positioned at one of the most active intersections in downtown Greenville, this 2,200 SF restaurant opportunity sits directly within the city's highest-performing pedestrian corridor. Located steps from ONE City Plaza, the property benefits from continuous foot traffic driven by a blend of office users, residents, tourists, and destination dining.

This stretch of South Main Street is a proven high-volume corridor, with typical daily pedestrian counts estimated between 8,000 - 12,000, and weekend / event surges exceeding 15,000 - 20,000 visitors per day. Downtown Greenville draws approximately 3.5M - 4M visitors annually, with this block serving as a primary circulation point between retail, dining, and entertainment anchors.

The location is heavily amplified by Greenville's robust event calendar. The nearby Peace Center attracts 300,000+ annual attendees generating consistent pre and post-show dining demand. Just minutes away, Bon Secours Wellness Arena hosts large-scale concerts, sporting events, and national tours, bringing thousands of visitors per event into the downtown core.

In addition, the property sits along the path of Greenville's most attended festivals, including Artisphere, which draws 100,000+ attendees annually, along with seasonal markets, food festivals, and weekly programming centered around City Plaza. These events consistently drive extended dwell times and repeat visits, creating strong revenue opportunities for food and beverage operators.

The combination of daily workforce traffic, destination tourism, and event-driven surges positions this location as a rare
