DETAILS

The Pagosa Springs Resort portfolio represents a unique opportunity to acquire fee-simple resort real estate in one of Colorado's most desirable and dynamic mountain markets. Featuring multiple low-rise resort buildings comprised of 70 units, each with kitchens and scenic mountain or golf course views, investors may consider conversion to boutique lodging, luxury condo residences, multifamily housing or a hybrid hospitality model. The site's accessibility, infrastructure and high barrier to new development make this offering a compelling opportunity for value creation in a proven mountain resort market.
