The Gould House

History of the Estate

Built in 1878 by James Paul Gray, this Victorian estate originally stood on a 40-acre ranch and was among Reno's earliest grand residences. In 1879, it was purchased by Warren Hill Gould, marking the start of its long-standing place in local history. By 1982, the home was saved from demolition and relocated to 832 Willow Street, where attorneys Harry O. Miller and Vernon E. Leverty meticulously restored it. Today, the Gould House remains a cherished historic landmark and is home to Leverty & Associates Law Firm.

Recognized by US News for being the No. 7 across the nation for Business Environment.

– US News (2024)

Nevada is the 6th fastest-growing state in the nation, according to the latest U.S. Census data.

– U.S. Census Bureau (2025)

- UNR Currently offers 145 undergraduate and 124 graduate programs
- The campus is located north of downtown Reno on approximately 200 acres—remains a central hub for education and community engagement.
- In-state undergraduate tuition (2025–26): $10K per year. Compared to average Tier-1 R1 public universities, UNR in-state tuition is approximately $3,000 lower, reinforcing its claim of being significantly more affordable.
- Maintains multiple engineering facilities, including Palmer, Scrugham, Harry Reid, and earthquake engineering labs, alongside ongoing investments in new infrastructure.
- The UNR College of Business stands out as a key asset, offering robust undergraduate programs—including Accounting, Business Administration, Information Systems, and Gaming Management

Construction is underway on the John Tulloch Business Building, set to open Fall 2025—a major development rather than a new school. It will anchor the College of Business with modern amenities, including a large auditorium, trading labs, and flexible collaboration spaces.
