PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Todd began his career in 1986 as a retail sales manager for Kinney Shoe Corporation. He moved over to finance after 5 years in retail sales management to work for ITT Financial as a Branch Manager.

Moving from a finance company to a bank after 2 years, Todd performed many positions at three different banks over a 20 year period. He was a branch manager, mortgage loan officer, Business Banking Officer overseeing 10 branches to finally a Vice President of Commercial Lending his last 5 years of his banking career.

Then, in 2009, Todd entered real estate development and property management with Gateway Commercial Properties. Gateway developed 7 acres adjacent to Walmart on highway 54 in Owensboro, KY building two retail strip centers that Todd fully leased. Todd then sold land to Goodwill Industries to build a new Eastside Owensboro location. The development was completed by selling remaining land and building offices for Kentucky Farm Bureau and Davita Dialysis.

In 2020, Todd joined forces with Owensboro's only dedicated Commercial Real Estate brokerage firm, Barron Commercial Group. Barron has deep roots in Owensboro with over a 50 year history in commercial real estate sales and leasing, development, and property management as well as tenant representation. Barron has developed a network of commercial real estate relationships extending to every major market in the United States. Whether the need is local or national, we have the experience and expertise, the tools, and the people to get the job done.

EDUCATION

Studied Business at Western Kentucky University.
