Location

Ben Rhydding is a highly regarded residential area on the eastern side of Ilkley, benefitting from a strong local catchment and convenient access to the town centre. Ilkley is a popular spa town featuring an array of national and independent retailers, cafés and restaurants including Bettys, Piccolino and M&S. The town benefits from strong transport connections, with direct rail links to Leeds and Bradford.

The unit is situated on Bolling Road within the established Ben Rhydding area, close to local amenities and residential housing. The property enjoys good visibility and accessibility, with straightforward access into Ilkley town centre and nearby arterial routes.

Description

The accommodation comprises a refurbished retail unit arranged over ground floor and basement levels.

The main sales area is open plan and benefits from good quality LED lighting, plastered and painted walls and a high-quality herringbone floor covering. The property features an attractive shop frontage incorporating a bay window, together with retained period features including a mosaic floor and stained glass detailing.

Steps lead up to a rear sales area which is fitted with LED lighting and carpet floor covering. A W/C and kitchenette are provided at ground floor level.

The basement offers reasonable head height and provides useful additional storage accommodation.
