INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Excellent Location

This premier West LA location features extremely strong demographics for multifamily investment, making it one of the region's most sought-after submarkets. A true live-work-play location offers residents an environment within close proximity to Santa Monica, Brentwood, Sawtelle, Westwood, and Culver City.

High Quality Asset

Barry Ave is well maintained and in excellent condition. Six of the eight units were completely renovated in 2022/2023 and an additional unit was renovated in 2025. These units feature entirely new interiors. Importantly, the plumbing and electrical systems and cable/internet infrastructure were all upgraded as well. The property's landscaping was also redone to highlight the natural light of the elevated, corner lot.

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Section 04

WEST LA — HOME TO LA'S BEST COMMUNITIES

*Located between the beach and downtown,
West Los Angeles is one of the best places to live in California and Los Angeles.*

West Los Angeles is a thriving hub of business and commerce, boasting a concentration of prominent companies and major media studios in nearby areas like Culver City, Santa Monica, and Beverly Hills. Situated between the Pacific Ocean and downtown Los Angeles, the region also offers a vibrant lifestyle with a diverse array of trendy restaurants, cafes, and bars. West Los Angeles is also home to the prestigious University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), a leading public research university contributing significantly to the area's intellectual and cultural life. Residents and visitors alike can explore world-renowned cultural institutions such as the Getty Center and the Hammer Museum or enjoy the sunny Southern California weather at one of the area's beautiful beaches. The West Los Angeles multifamily market remains as a highly desirable location within Los Angeles demonstrated by its high average asking rent of $3,051 per unit as of 2024. Since 2015, average asking rents per unit have increased by 9.7%. Year-over-year vacancy has fallen to 7.9%, and there are currently 779 multifamily units under construction.

NOTABLE SPOTS

GETTY CENTER

The Getty Center in Los Angeles is an astounding place to spend a day marveling at world-class art and relaxing in beautifully manicured gardens. Take the tram up to this lavish postmodern complex, which houses a sprawling museum featuring masterpieces by the likes of Van Gogh, Monet, and Cezanne. You can also enjoy superb views of the city from the Cactus Garden, and savor a delicious contemporary menu at the center's restaurant.

VENICE BEACH

This lively beach close to Los Angeles draws crowds to its busy boardwalk, where street performers and colorful characters make an appearance. Surfers gather around the Venice Breakwater while bodybuilders flock to the open-air gym on Muscle Beach. Take your time to explore the countless cafes and souvenir shops that line the waterfront or bike along the 4-mile boardwalk that runs from the southern end of Venice Beach to the neighboring Santa Monica Beach.

VENICE CANALS

The century-old canals within this iconic L.A. district recreate the dreamy landscape of the Italian city of Venice. Stroll along the waterside walkway and stop along the picture-perfect bridges. You'll spot ducks, tiny boats, and historic houses along the way. Kids will enjoy the playground at Linnie Canal Park.

SANTA MONICA PIER

A historic pier located in the city of Santa Monica. The Santa Monica Pier features an amusement park, aquarium, and numerous restaurants and shops. The pier is also a popular spot for fishing and a tourist destination.

UCLA CAMPUS

The University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) is a public land-grant research university in Los Angeles, California, United States. Its academic roots were established in 1881 as a normal school then known as the southern branch of the California State Normal School which later evolved into San José State University. The branch was transferred to the University of California to become the Southern Branch of the University of California in 1919, making it the second-oldest of the ten-campus University of California system after the University of California, Berkeley.

LACMA

Since its inception in 1965, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) has been devoted to collecting works of art that span both history and geography, in addition to representing Los Angeles's uniquely diverse population. Today LACMA is the largest art museum in the western United States, with a collection that includes over 120,000 objects dating from antiquity to the present, encompassing the geographic world and nearly the entire history of art.
