PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Born and raised in Upstate New York, I have always been deeply connected to the Greater Binghamton area. As both an athlete and a dedicated student, I grew up with a passion for teamwork and discipline, which shaped my career and life. Over the years, I've worn many hats—coach, mentor, entrepreneur—and have become a dedicated community advocate and successful business leader.

With a degree in sports management with a concentration in business from the University of Phoenix, I transitioned my skills into the restaurant industry, owning and managing several successful establishments. I've also been actively involved in real estate acquisitions for over 20 years, furthering my expertise in business management, negotiation, and customer satisfaction. My commitment to the local community is unwavering, and I take immense pride in giving back, both through donations and volunteering my time to support local charities and causes. Above all, my most cherished role is being a father to 8 incredible children.

Now, as part of the esteemed Yaman Real Estate team of true professionals, I leverage the collective expertise and reputation of a renowned brokerage to provide my clients with the highest standard of service. The Yaman team's commitment to professionalism, integrity, and success aligns perfectly with my personal mission to always deliver excellence in every transaction.

Over the past year, I've made significant strides in real estate. My work at Yaman Real Estate and as a developer has positioned me as a key player in the local market, focusing on strategic growth and profitable investments.

I've structured several high-profile real estate deals, including the ongoing development of Riverside Gardens, a project aimed at revitalizing the community while providing sustainable housing solutions. My ability to negotiate and bring value to my clients has been a cornerstone of these deals.

Community Engagement and Charitable Contributions: Continuing my commitment to giving back, I've donated both time and resources to various local charities and community-driven initiatives, making an impact where it counts most.

Coaching and Mentoring: My love for sports continues as I coach youth and adult baseball teams, instilling values of teamwork, dedication, and perseverance. Coaching allows me to give back to the community in ways that foster growth and personal development in young athletes.

Recognition in Business and Leadership: Over the past year, I've been recognized for my work in real estate. These accolades highlight my dedication to excellence, strong work ethic, and ability to produce results that exceed expectations.

With more than 20 years of experience as a business owner and coach, I bring a unique blend of leadership, motivation, and industry expertise to my role as a real estate professional at Yaman Real Estate. My ability to compete at the highest level, coupled with a relentless drive to succeed, ensures that I deliver unparalleled results for both my team and my clients. Whether closing a complex deal or leading a new project, I strive to exceed expectations at every turn. My perseverance, commitment to excellence, and dedication to building lasting relationships ensure that those who trust in my abilities can always count on the best effort and the finest results.
