Location

The premises are located near to the corner of Marionville Road, between the junctions for Dalgety Street and Moray Park Terrace. There are excellent links to Edinburgh City centre, Leith through to Portobello. The shops position is on the east side of the street with the Hoppy Pub on the corner and some other small businesses including a financial advisor and a beauty salon on Cambusnethan Street and lot of highly populated residential dwellings above and surrounding. This property is very close to Meadowbank Retail Park.

There is no shortage of public transport in the vicinity of the premises, Edinburgh Waverley Station is around a 20-minute walk away from the premises as well as tram stops, buses pass regularly on Easter Road and London Road, and Arthur's seat is just over the road.

Description

The subjects occupy the ground and basement floors of a commercial unit in a small parade of shops with traditional Edinburgh tenement flats above. Access to the property is gained through a glazed UPVC door with a full window on the left side both protected by roller shutters, entry is directly into an open space bright clean and tidy former salon, with a bay window, fresh white walls and laminate flooring. The stair leading to the basement is located to the rear.

The basement area has a tea prep/kitchen area and some handy shelving for storage and a backwash for hairdressing that could be easily removed.

Externally the unit is in brilliant condition and looks very presentable on the street.
