

MARKET OVERVIEW

Located in the rapidly expanding town of Krum (just miles from Denton and strategically between Dallas and Fort Worth), the area supports strong consumer demand—with over 25,000 local residents within five miles and projected population growth of nearly 23% by 2029. A healthy median household income (more than $97K within 1 mile) further underscores the location’s commercial potential. Ideal for retail, restaurant, service, or mixed-use development opportunities.
