ESTD YARD 1969

AT RALEIGH IRON WORKS

Salvage yard is a mixed-use development connecting Raleigh's industrial past to its dynamic future through curated, innovative spaces

Rooted in the City's industrial legacy, the development reimagines these spaces for today's makers, movers and doers, cultivating a diverse and activated environment.

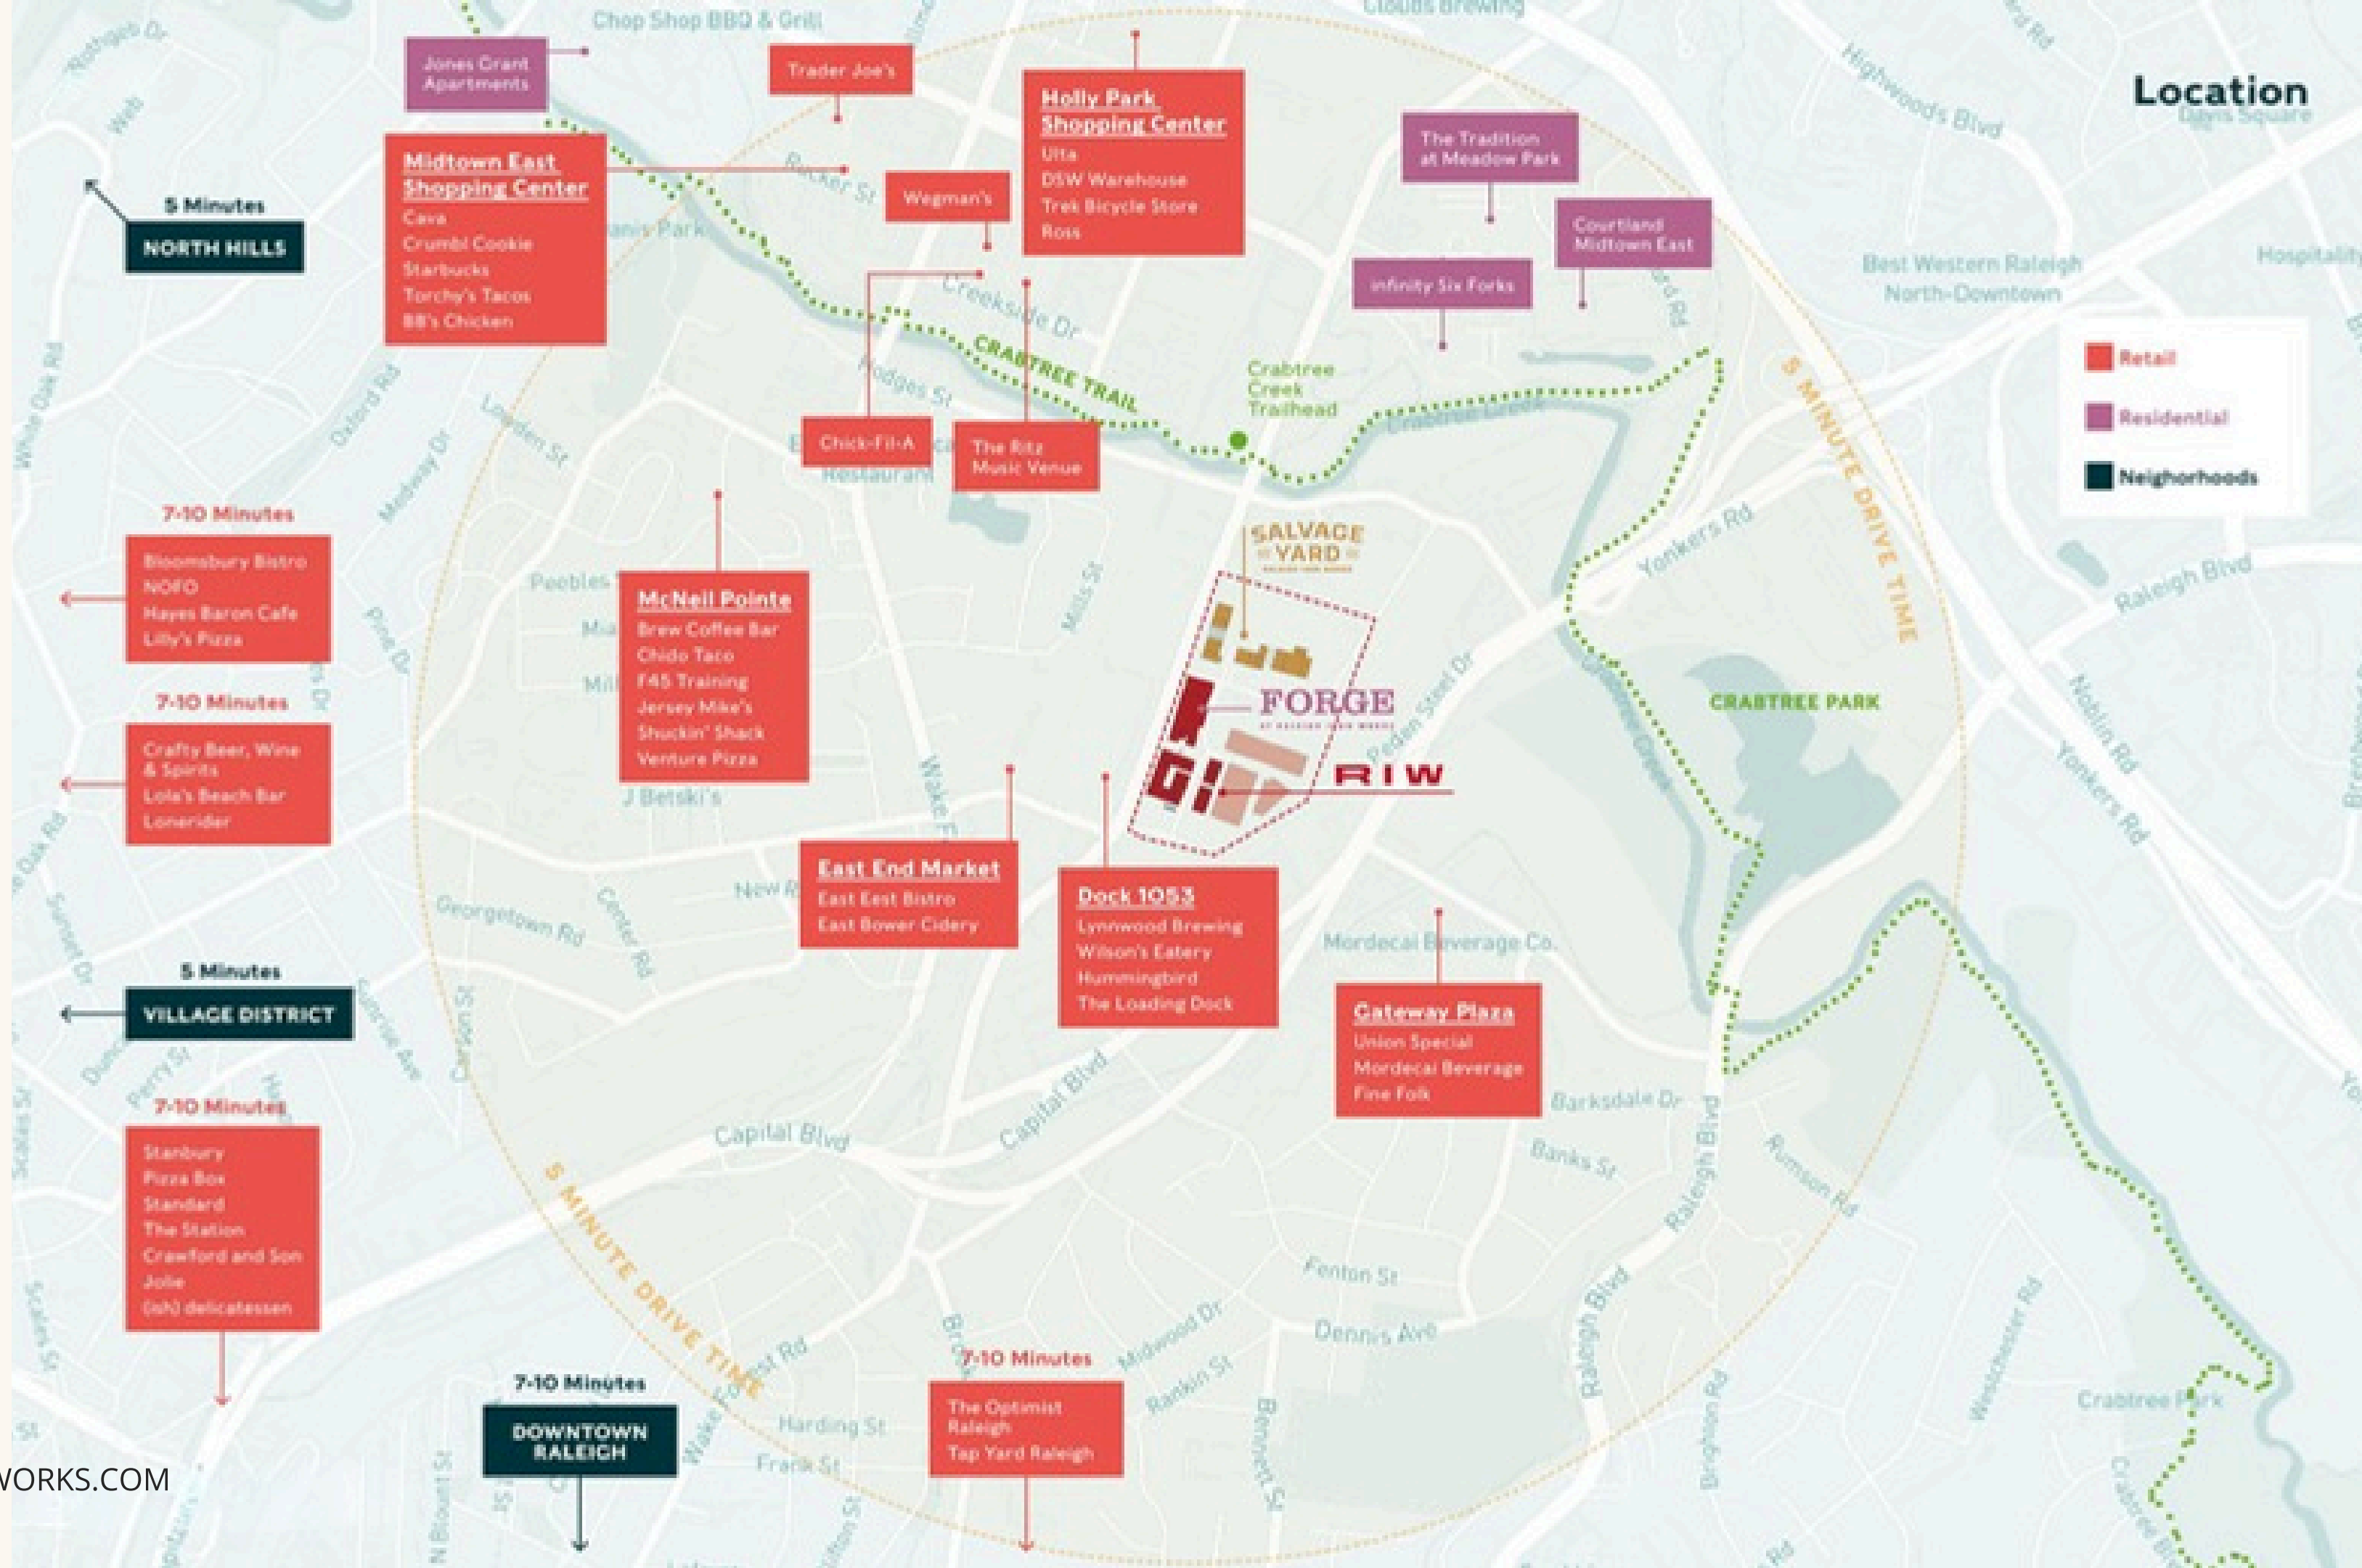

The Development Team

A project like Salvage Yard, rooted in adaptive reuse and reinvention—requires the vision and leadership of an owner committed to transforming historic spaces into dynamic, community-driven destinations. By honoring the past while creating meaningful places for the future, Salvage Yard is positioned to deliver lasting quality, long-term value, and a strong sense of place.

GRUBB VENTURES brings deep expertise in adaptive reuse and infill redevelopment across the Triangle, with a proven track record through projects like Raleigh Iron Works and the vibrant mixed-use community at Glenwood Place.
