Floor Plan

The Location

Artists' Alley occupies a central location in downtown Toronto between St. Patrick and Simcoe Street, just south of Dundas Street West. It is located in the Discovery District, a commercial hub that has a high concentration of hospitals and research institutions including MaRS Discovery District, SickKids Hospital, Mount Sinai among many others.

To the south of the property is Queen West, one of Toronto's premier fashion destinations. The area is known for its mix of local fashion boutiques and premium international brands including Zara, Aritzia, Lululemon, Reigning Champ, Casper and many more.

Ideally positioned among multiple public transportation lines, Artists' Alley is steps away from both St. Patrick and Osgoode subway stations as well the Dundas streetcar line and the Queen streetcar line.
