Clark County Nevada

Synopsis

As of the 2020 census, the population was 2,265,461, with an estimated population of $\pm 2,505,000$ for 2026. Most of the county's population resides in and around the Las Vegas urban core. It is by far the most populous county in Nevada, and the 11th most populous county in the United States. It covers roughly 7% of the state's land area but holds about 73% of the state's population, making Nevada one of the most centralized states in the country.

With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area roughly the size of New Jersey, Clark County is the nation's 22nd-largest county by area. The County is a mix of urban and rural locales that offers the convenience of city living with access to some of the nation's best outdoor recreational areas just a short drive away.

Clark County employs more than 10,000 people across nearly 40 departments. The County has an annual budget of approximately $12.9 billion, which surpasses that of the state government.

Synopsis

The Southwest Las Vegas submarket is one of the valley's most dynamic and high-performing commercial hubs, characterized by rapid, high-quality development and excellent infrastructure. Anchoring prestigious residential areas like Rhodes Ranch and Mountain's Edge, the submarket is strategically positioned with seamless ease of access via the I-215 Beltway, offering fast connectivity to the Strip and Harry Reid International Airport. This commercial corridor is defined by massive corporate and mixed-use assets, including Switch's world-class data center campus, the headquarters and Performance Institute for the UFC, the vibrant UnCommons mixed-use campus, and the new Durango Resort & Casino. This convergence of high-value businesses and desirable living drives consistent, robust retail and office absorption, solidifying the Southwest's status as a premier location for investment and expansion.

Professional Sports

Synopsis

The Las Vegas Valley is home to many sports, most of which take place in the unincorporated communities around Las Vegas rather than in the city itself. It has rapidly established itself as a premier sports city, hosting a lineup of major professional teams that have brought home championships. These successful teams not only foster fan interest and growth but also play a significant role in strengthening the local economy.

The Vegas Golden Knights, the city's first major league franchise, wasted no time making their mark by winning the Stanley Cup in 2023. The Las Vegas Aces have dominated the WNBA, securing back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023. The Las Vegas Raiders, while having their championship triumphs tied to their time in Oakland and Los Angeles, have a storied history that includes three world championship victories (XI, XV, and XVIII). The Las Vegas Athletics brings a legacy of 9 world championships and are looking to add more at their new home. These teams have not only captivated local fans but have also helped solidify reputation of the city as a major player in the world of professional sports.

Las Vegas is also a great place for minor league sports, with the Las Vegas Aviators (Minor League Baseball, Triple-A affiliate of the Las Vegas Athletics), the Henderson Silver Knights (American Hockey League, affiliate of the Vegas Golden Knights), and the Las Vegas Lights FC (USL Championship soccer) all calling the area home. The city also has indoor football and box lacrosse teams, the Vegas Knight Hawks and the Las Vegas Desert Dogs, respectively, who share a venue in Henderson.
