21 and 21a Red Lion Street, Aylsham, Norwich, NR11 6ER

Red Lion Street is situated in the heart of Aylsham, a thriving and popular market town in North Norfolk, with excellent access to the renowned North Norfolk coastline. The location benefits from a high volume of passing vehicular traffic, with routes converging from both Norwich Road and Cromer Road.

Aylsham lies approximately 12 miles north of Norwich and 10 miles south of Cromer, serving as a key hub for surrounding villages and rural communities.

Description

To the rear, Aylsham Dental Practice occupies an adjoining single-storey building accessed separately via an alleyway. This unit offers purpose-built dental treatment rooms, a reception/waiting area, and kitchen and WC facilities.

The property comprises a prominent mid-terrace Grade II listed building of traditional brick-rendered construction beneath a pitched tiled roof, together with a recently constructed single-storey commercial building to the rear.

The front unit, occupied by Aylsham Candles, faces Red Lion Street and provides an open-plan ground floor retail area with a rear kitchen, WC, and storage.

A self-contained two-storey flat, also accessed from the alleyway, comprises an open-plan lounge/kitchen and shower room at ground level, with a double bedroom and an additional room on the first floor
