The I-269 Industrial Park is a master-planned industrial development consisting of 550 acres developed by H&M Development. Founded in 1957, H&M is a national engineering and construction firm headquartered in Jackson, Tennessee. In the last ten years, H&M has completed over 55 million square feet of big-box warehouse and distribution space for clients including Asics, Nike, Baxter, Milwaukee Tool, Adidas Group, Procter & Gamble, GE, Tractor Supply, Williams-Sonoma, Ross Stores, Dicks Sporting Goods and many others. For additional information visit hmcompany.com.

I-269 Industrial Park is ideally located in the rapidly expanding Marshall County, MS submarket of Memphis with direct access to I-269 the newest beltway around the city of Memphis. I-269 links the Park directly to a web of seven converging interstate/highways serving 152 major metro markets and two-thirds of the nation's population by truck in one day. The I-269 Beltway also provides easy access to the entire Memphis MSA including a non-stop route to Memphis International Airport for FedEx, UPS and DHL delivery services; and Memphis' unparalleled rail/intermodal services from five major Class 1 railroads including BNSF, CN, UP, CSX and Norfolk Southern which is located four miles from the Park.
