In January 2019 Cascade Charter Township was recognized for the fifth year in a row for its efforts in contributing to Michigan's growth and economic development. Located in the southeastern section of Kent County, Cascade Charter Township is approximately 10 miles southeast of Grand Rapids. In addition to its public parks, pedestrian pathways and outdoor recreational venues, the Thornapple River, which divides the Township into two halves, provides residents and visitors with a place to enjoy fishing, canoeing, and kayaking. The township also offers easy access to I-96 and Gerald R. Ford International Airport, which services over two million passengers, making it an ideal location for companies looking to establish a presence in this area. Businesses in the area include metal and plastic product manufacturers, automotive and aerospace, tool and die, packaging materials, publications, and furniture and wood product industries. This property is surrounded by numerous commercial establishments including supermarkets, hotels, restaurants, retail plazas, and professional office buildings.

The population of Cascade Township is 18,900 and is comprised of 7,000+ households with a median household income that is 83.3% higher ($106,500) compared to the United States median income of $58,100.
