📋 PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Two adjacent pad-ready C-2 parcels fronting State Highway 53 in fast growing Rathdrum. Both sites are stripped of topsoil, mass graded, and compacted to a buildable subgrade, with a shared ITD approved 40 foot commercial highway approach and public water and sewer to the site. Highway 53 carries 7,935 vehicles per day at the site, building to 13,756 at the signalized Highway 41 junction. C-2 zoning supports hotel, fuel, convenience, restaurant, QSR, car wash, bank, and other highway service uses. Surrounded by active residential growth and less than a mile from Lakeland High and Middle Schools. Buy the 2.95 acre pad on its own or combine with the adjacent pending 0.95 acre pad for a 3.90 acre site.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Rathdrum is one of the fastest growing cities in Idaho, anchoring the west end of the Highway 53 corridor between Post Falls and Athol at the base of Rathdrum Mountain. The 3 mile population around the site has grown 19.4 percent since 2020 and is projected to keep growing near 7 percent through 2030, with 3 mile average household income of $102,907. New rooftops surround the site, including new single family and apartment projects under construction, driving demand for highway service and convenience retail along the corridor.
