Executive Summary

3345 Fort Harrison Rd | Terre Haute, IN is an 8.37-acre heavy industrial property with 42,362 SF of existing building improvements, located within the Fort Harrison Business Park Economic Development Area. The site includes a 2001-built office/shop building (11,250 SF with 2,400 SF of finished office), a concrete-block shop building, and two steel-frame warehouses (24,000 SF combined). The layout positions the property for owner-user industrial use, contractor yard operations, equipment storage, or IOS conversion with income-producing improvements in place.

The Fort Harrison Business Park is one of Terre Haute's most established rail-served industrial corridors, with direct Indiana Rail Road service and CSX interchange access. The property sits within an active city-designated economic development district inside Terre Haute city limits, with full site utilities in place including heavy power, natural gas, water, and sanitary sewer. Terre Haute is a well-established Midwest industrial market with a labor shed of 550,000+ within 50 miles and a deep manufacturing base anchored by Great Dane, Amcor, IFF, Taghleef, Novelis, and Bemis. The market offers favorable occupancy economics relative to larger Midwest metros, with I-70 frontage providing direct east-west logistics connectivity to Indianapolis, St. Louis, and beyond.
