CEDARSIDE COMMONS

Stanwood is the commercial and cultural hub of the greater Stanwood/Camano community. The City has retained its small-town character and sense of community. The City's historic resources have been preserved and the connections to the surrounding agricultural land and rural environment have been strengthened.

New residential neighborhoods and commercial centers form an aesthetically pleasing community character. Residents and visitors are able to move safely through the City to ease conflicts between pedestrians, bicyclists, and automobiles, and reduce suburban sprawl. The City and community work cooperatively together to promote tourism, access to local natural features, and special events.

Community Attractions

A new train station opened in the fall of 2009. Near the station, visitors will find Ladders and Lace, Guided Gallery, and many other unique shops within a one-block walk. When the hungry bug bites, Stanwood has Mammoth Burger, Amigo Mexican Restaurant, Jimmy's Pizza and Pasta, and the Cookie Mill, just to name a few. If music is your thing, join us for the Stanwood Summer Concert Series or karaoke at the Stanwood Hotel and Saloon. Stanwood farms feature fresh locally grown produce throughout the spring, summer, and fall.

The Municipal Parking lot behind the Stanwood Police Station is the site for the Stanwood Farmer's Market throughout the summer. The Twin City Idlers host a huge car show on the last Sunday in June. The first weekend in August is devoted to the Stanwood/Camano Fair, a country fair with all the animals and exhibits you would expect from a quality event. Stanwood also plays host to Movies in the Park.

More information on events can be found at the Discover Stanwood-Camano website.

STANWOOD, WASHINGTON

About Stanwood

The City of Stanwood is a charming rural town located in north Snohomish County. The area is celebrated for its rich Scandinavian history, vibrant community and agricultural roots. Stanwood offers a unique blend of quaint rural charm and contemporary urban conveniences. The city itself is made up of a small, hardworking team, committed to providing community members with quality services.
