Market Overview

Dumbarton / North Richmond / Lakeside

Area Highlights

The property is situated along Dumbarton Street in North Richmond, near the Lakeside and Brookland Park neighborhoods—an area characterized by established residential communities, community-oriented uses, and convenient access to major transportation corridors. The location benefits from proximity to I-95 and I-64, allowing easy access for staff and families commuting from across the greater Richmond area.

Surrounding neighborhoods feature a strong family presence and long-standing community institutions, supporting consistent demand for childcare and early education services. The combination of accessibility, neighborhood density, and community-focused surroundings makes this location well-suited for a daycare or pre-school operator seeking long-term stability and visibility within a residential market.

Neighborhood Dining & Retail

Nearby Lakeside Avenue provides local restaurants, cafés, and neighborhood-serving retail options.
